Credit Card

All credit card transactions will be subject to processing fee of 2.75%. This fee is applicable to incoming transactions only. Credit card deposits under $5,000.00 USD may be available for immediate trading; deposits larger than that amount will be held for clearance and may not be immediately available.

If you have funded by credit card and would like to withdraw funds at a later date please be advised that we will issue withdrawals via the original card used for deposit. As this is a credit back, we are only able to refund an amount less than or equal to the original deposit. Should you require a withdrawal larger than the amount of your original deposit, you may choose a secondary method of withdrawal for the remainder of your funds.

BPS

BPS offers an alternative way to fund your account through direct money transfers. By signing up with Broker Processing Services, you are able to transfer funds from your own bank account directly to ours. There are no fees for depositing money via BPS, however there is a charge of $15.00 USD to withdraw using this service. Normally BPS transactions take 24-48 hours to settle, at which point the funds will be deposited into your trading account.

Check

A paper check will be sent via DHL to the address listed on your account for a fee of $35.00 USD. This fee includes processing and shipping and will be processed in 3-4 business days.
